

I wish to express my strongest support for New Jersey's current policies on preventing nuisance calls. Since its implementation our number of unsolicited calls has dropped to almost zero. I have no desire to ever receive one of these calls again. I would be very disappointed with any government agency that seeks to change the current New Jersey do not call regulations.